Travis,
Thank you for being my best friend for over three years. You've taught me more about friendship, life, and love than I could have ever imagined. Although next year the miles between us will be increasing, the distance between our hearts will never change.

I Love You!

Love Always,
Jenn

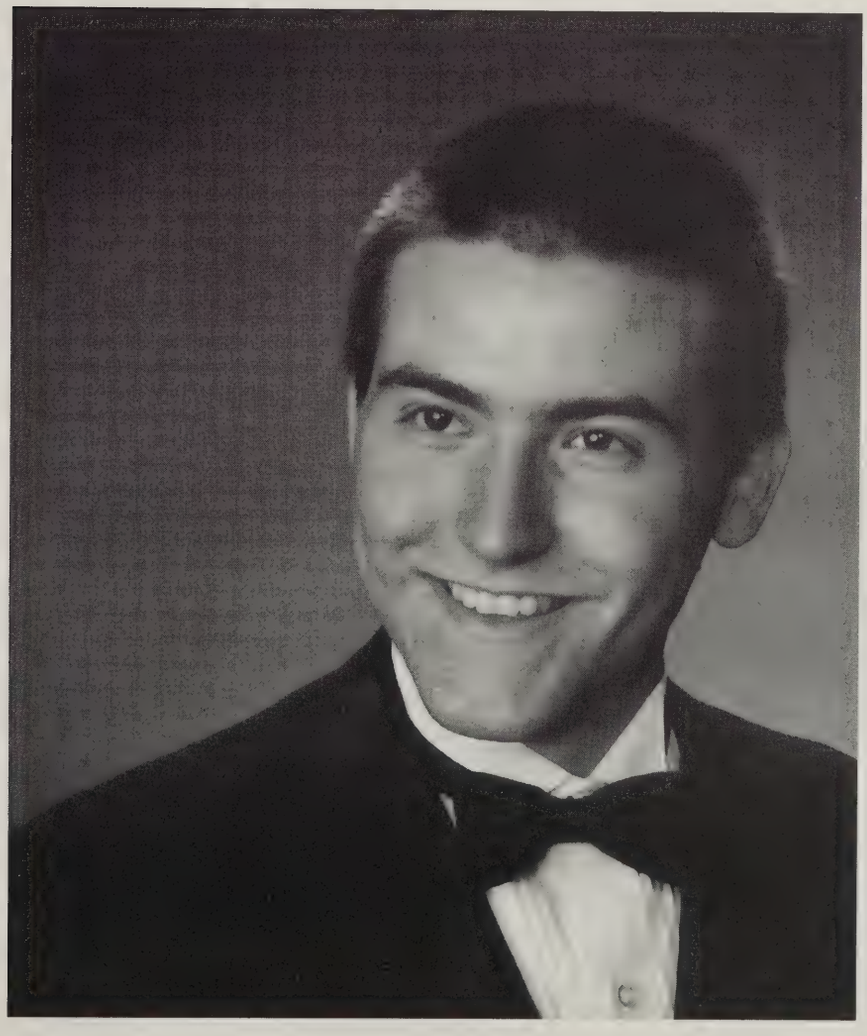

Adam

We knew that you were special the day you were born,
You have only given us joy and laughter over the last eighteen years,
If only you could stay our little boy,
But we know we must let you go to fulfill your hopes and dreams,
You have the ability to do whatever you want,
With God's guidance and the love and support of your family you will reach the highest peak,
And stand on the tallest mountaintop.
Thank you for being a wonderful son,
We love you!

Dad, Mom, Chris and Kim

Jennifer

From the moment you came into our lives, as fragile and perfect
as a flower blooming for the first time, we felt such joy and hope in our hearts.

And ever since then, you have brightened our days in countless ways.

So on your graduation, we want to remind you how special you are to us and how much

For our Beautiful Daughter
Crystal

We look at you today and see the same beautiful eyes that looked at us with love when you were a baby. We look at you today and see the same beautiful mouth that made us cry when you first smiled at us when you were a baby. It was not long ago that we held you in our arms long after you fell asleep. We look at you today and see our beautiful daughter who is no longer our little baby but a beautiful young lady with a full range of emotions and ideals and goals. Every day is exciting as we continue to watch you grow. We want you to always know that in good and bad times we will always love you. No matter what you do or how you think or what you say, you can always depend on our support, guidance, and friendship. Most of all, you have our love every minute of every day. You have made us very proud. We love being your parents.

WE LOVE YOU,
Mommy and Daddy

You are a shining example of what a daughter can be — love and laughter, beautiful and good, honest and principled, determined and independent, sensitive and intelligent. You are a shining example of what every parent wishes their daughter was and we are so very proud of you

Mom, Dad, and Tony

Your desire and strength can fulfill all of your dreams, so never stop dreaming because your dreams will carry you where you want to go if you have the desire to follow them.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Crystal

Love,
Your Family

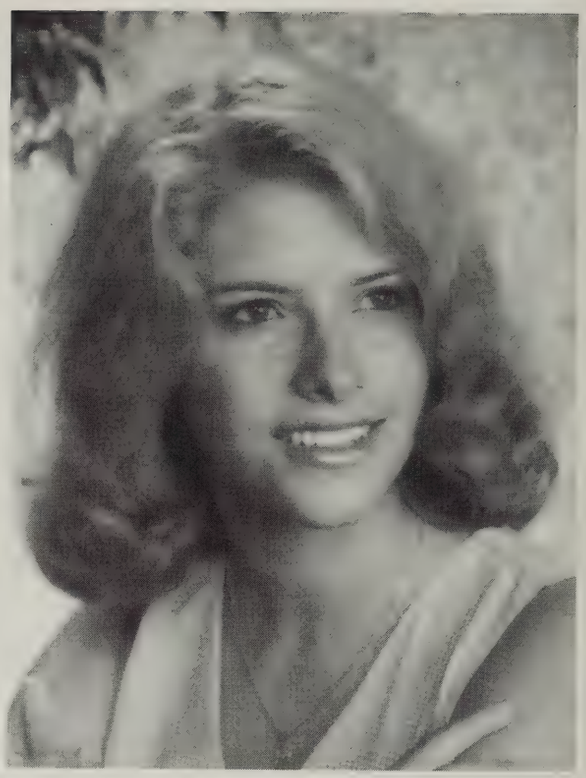

Looking back today it seems time has flown by and you've grown up so quickly . . . even though it was sometimes hard letting go of the little girl you once were. It's brought nothing but pride and joy to see how much you've accomplished over the years and to know you're a wonderful daughter who will always make your own unique mark on the world. We love you and are very proud of you.

Mom, Dad & Zach

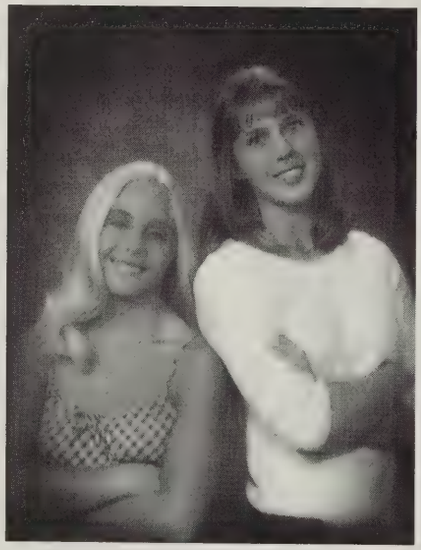

Valerie,
Congratulations!
We are very proud of the young woman you have become, and we have faith that you will go far in life. The years have passed so quickly and it's hard to believe that you are graduating. No matter what you do or where you go, as you start your own life you will always be our little girl.

We love you and wish you all the best in life. I know your grandmother is glowing with pride and joy as she is watching you from heaven. May God always bless you and keep you safe.

We Love You,
Mom, Dad & Eric

As we move on to another chapter in our lives, good luck to each and every one of you, may all of your dreams and aspirations come true.

Love Always,

We have been best friends since the first day of elementary school. We have been through a lot together. Without your friendship and help I doubt that I would be the same person that I am today. Next year we will both go off to college but I know that we will remain the best of friends!

First Times

by A. Mother

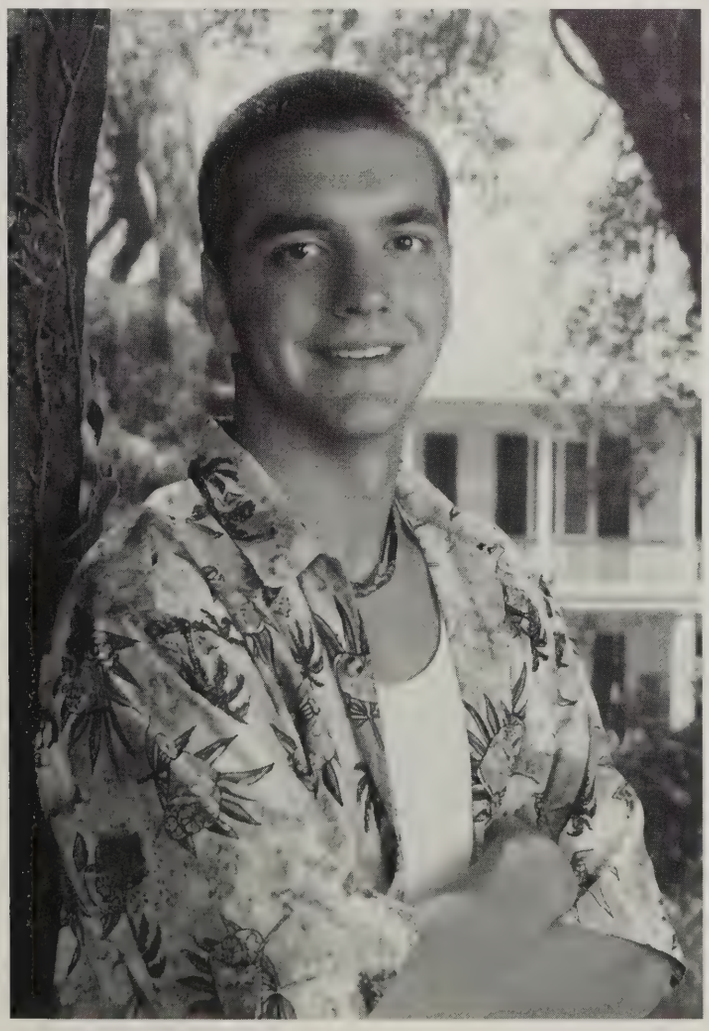

It seems like only yesterday
I watched you leave for school for the very first time.

Now it is twelve short years later
And I'm watching a young woman,
Ready to challenge life for the first time.

In a few short weeks
You'll be going off to college
And it will be another first time.

Life is made up of many first times.
The first time you ride a bike,
The first time you fall in love.
The first time you see your baby's face
And the first time you realize your little girl
Has become a young woman
Of whom you can be extremely proud.

I love you & wish you a life of many exciting first times.
Seize them all and enjoy your future.

Joshua,

What a blessing you are to us! We are so proud of the fine young man you've become. God has richly blessed us with you and we are proud to call you our son. As you graduate from high school and begin another phase in life's journey, we wish you the very best. We love you!

Dad and Mom

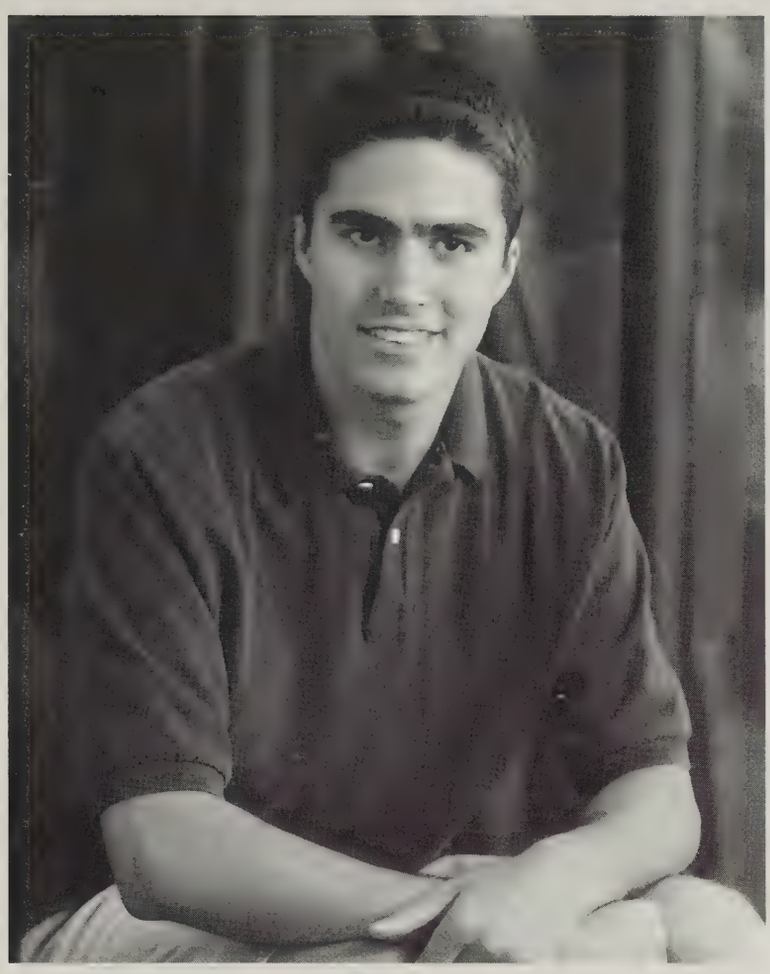

Lori,
During this amazing adventure, we've had our ups and downs. I am proud to say the good outweighs the bad. There have been Christmas formals, proms, and difficult high school romances. You've always been there to give me much-needed advice. I pray you follow your dreams and let God direct your path. I will never forget our friendship, and no matter what, it will never fade away!
Love,
Tiffanie

Tiffanie,
Your friendship has meant so much to me. We've had our ups and downs, but you've been there for me when no one else has. I will never forget you, no matter how far apart we may be. You have a very special place in my heart. Thank you for everything. You're truly a best friend.
Lori

I am so proud of you. You have accomplished so many things in your life with so many more to come.

I am confident in your ability, your self-knowledge and your values. These things will guide you along whichever path you may choose for your life.

Thank you for not only being my daughter but my friend as well. You have given me the greatest joys of my life and memories I will cherish always!

I love you

REEM NAJJAR

You made me happy when you were born, and so proud at your graduation.

"Dad"

Now that you're going to college, I hear you need an alarm clock. Can I come along? Love ya.

"Mom"

I was twelve the day you were born.
I got your first T-shirt with your name on the back, because we didn't want to lose you. You were the brightest star in our home then, and you still are. Keep on trucking in that TOOL mobile of yours.

"your brother"
"LU' AYY"

Listening to your great singing voice, our long hours in recording music, and watching out for you, like a hawk, at those wild music concerts, are the finest times of my life. Above all, I'm grateful to you for giving me the best practice for my future parenting job.

Thick and thin
We've been through it all
You name it, it's happened.
We're crazy and we know it
But that band made us
Proud to show it.
With all the people
That we've known
It helped us realize
How we've grown.
Apart from this school
We will leave
To practice life's
Lessons that are there
To achieve.
We've learned a lot
Together and apart
Still, we hold that Special place in
Each other's heart.
Good luck to all the seniors from all of us!

"Thanks for all the memories. Just remember the sky's the limit!"

SPORTS

Roger Clemens helps the New York Yankees beat the Atlanta Braves in four games to win the 1999 World Series.

The Dallas Stars capture the Stanley Cup with Brett Hull's game-winning goal in triple overtime.

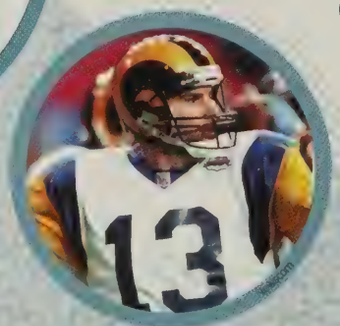

In sports, it was a year for firsts. Forty million viewers tuned in to watch the U.S. Women's Soccer Team triumph over China and Tiger Woods win six straight PGA tournaments. The Dallas Stars became the first team since the 1994 New York Rangers to win both the President's Trophy and the Stanley Cup in the same season. In addition, Lance Armstrong overcame a bout with cancer to win his first Tour de France.

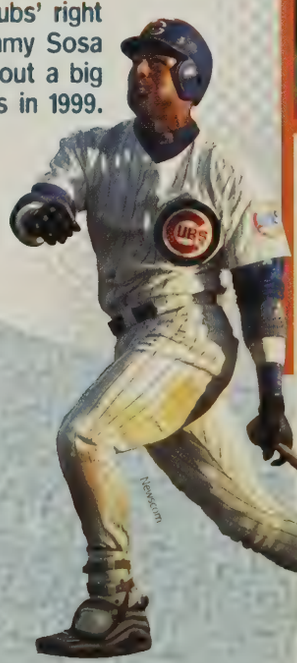

Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain lead the team in a 5-4 narrow, penalty-kick victory over China to win the Women's World Cup.

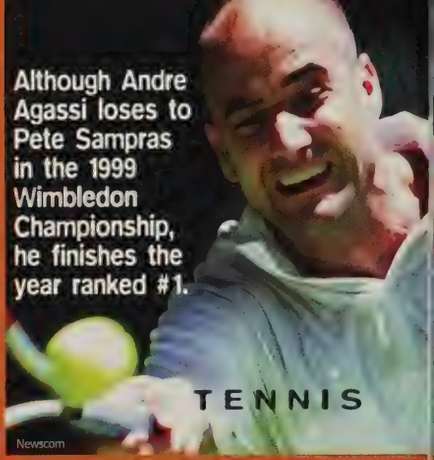

Tiger Woods' PGA Tour winning streak comes to an end when he is beaten at the Buick Invitational.

Quarterback Kurt Warner leads the Rams to a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV.

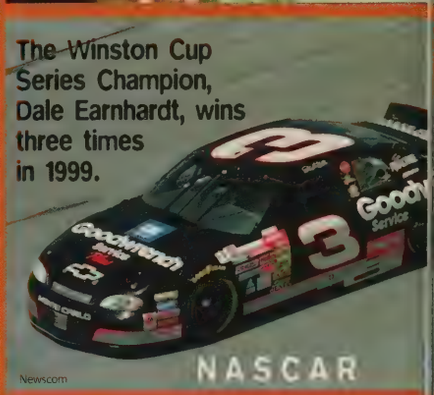

Chicago Cubs' right fielder Sammy Sosa hammered out a big 63 homeruns in 1999.

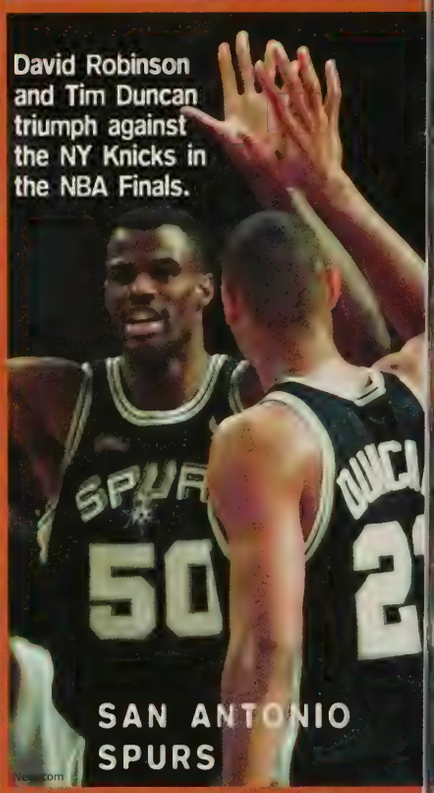

Although Andre Agassi loses to Pete Sampras in the 1999 Wimbledon Championship, he finishes the year ranked #1.

TENNIS

The Winston Cup Series Champion, Dale Earnhardt, wins three times in 1999.

NASCAR

David Robinson and Tim Duncan triumph against the NY Knicks in the NBA Finals.

SAN ANTONIO SPURS

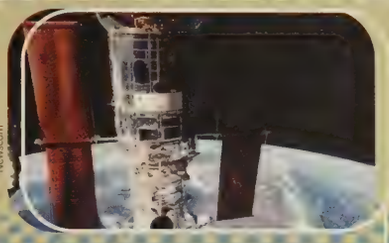

Even die-hard skiers jump on boards like Ross Powers to try the sport that's taking the slopes by storm.

USA SNOWBOARDING

The year 2000 was greeted with celebrations across the globe, including a fantastic fireworks display at the Eiffel Tower and religious ceremonies in Jerusalem. Looking back on 1999, we see a year filled with hope for the future, but also a year plagued by war and natural disaster. The conflict in Serbia kept the world on the edge of its seat, while earthquakes, tornadoes and winter storms focused our attention on international relief efforts. In 1999-2000, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities including John F. Kennedy Jr., Walter Payton and Charles Schulz.

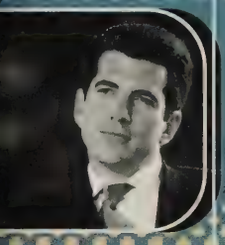

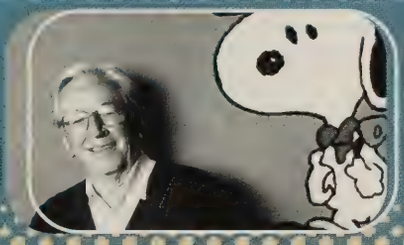

WEATHER

The century came to a close with an upsurge of natural disasters. Hurricane Floyd caused $4.2 billion worth of damage on the East Coast while snowstorms crippled regions of the Northeast and Midwest. Internationally, earthquakes killed thousands in Turkey, Columbia and Taiwan.

DISCOVERY

The Hubble Telescope, Earth's orbiting eye to the heavens, beamed back pictures of new planets and nebulas, while kinks in the NASA Mars Polar Lander mission delayed hopes of discovering more about the mysterious red planet.

MILLENNIUM

While some stockpiled Y2K supplies and safeguarded their computers against the "millennium bug," others rang in the new century with fireworks, parties and religious celebrations. While merchandise branding the date 01.01.00 filled stores, millennium countdown clocks were seen everywhere from billboards to post offices.

GOODBYE

As we said goodbye to the century, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities. John F. Kennedy Jr. was killed in a private plane crash while Charles Schulz passed away on the night before his last "Peanuts" comic strip was to be published in Sunday papers around the world. Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.

BRITNEY SPEARS

"Boy Bands" and Latin superstars lead the 1999-2000 music scene. 'N SYNC and Backstreet Boys keep fans screaming for their good looks and slick dance moves. Ex-Menudo vocalist Ricky Martin wows audiences with his first English album, and actress/singer Jennifer Lopez scores big with her own first album "On the 6." The biggest success story of the year, however, is former Mouseketeer Britney Spears' meteoric rise to fame via her debut LP "...Baby One More Time."

These cool cowgirls continue to enjoy the success of their breakthrough album "Wide Open Spaces."

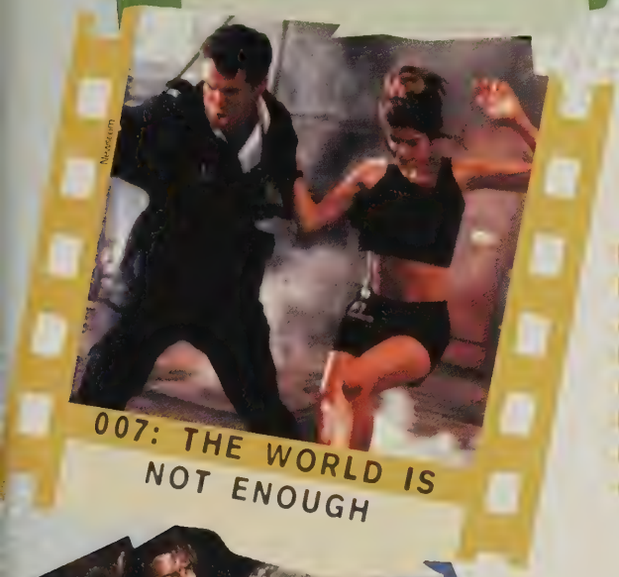

TLC returns to the hip-hop scene with "Fan Mail," featuring the singles "Come On Down" and "No Scrubs."

The networks presented us with a dazzling variety of shows, many of them teen-oriented. The WB Network led the way with "Buffy the Vampire Slayer," "Dawson's Creek" and newcomers, "Roswell" and "Popular." Jennifer Love Hewitt ventured out on her own, tackling the concrete jungle of New York City in "Time Of Your Life." Animated sitcom "The Simpsons" remained popular while cartoonist Matt Groening's newest series, "Futurama," gained a wider audience. Finally, talk show personality Regis Philbin crossed over to game shows asking the country, "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?"
